

Monday 12th May

Dear Parent/Carer

I appreciate that many parents may now be considering their long term holiday plans, especially with the changes in legislation that remove the option for schools to approve time off during school term time.

You will be aware that Meden adopted a revised Christmas Break pattern this academic year to aid teacher training and planning, with the ultimate aim of improving student achievement.

When we agreed the alteration to the school holiday structure in 2013, we also made clear to parents would be consulted about these dates, and that there would be an opportunity for parents to offer feedback on these changes during this term.

I have enclosed the proposed term dates for 2014-15 and 2015-16. These can also be found on our website. Your views and experiences are very important to us, if you would like to submit your feedback, good or bad, then you can do this in the following ways:

- In writing which can be posted to the address below or handed to reception
- By email to office@medenschool.co.uk

The deadline for all feedback submissions is Friday 23rd May.

Thank you for your continued support

Mr D Hooker
