The Story Ends

Ben was glad to be warm and dry after his adventure He gobbled a tasty dinner of chicken and rice After that, he snuggled down by the fire to chew his favourite bone He began to feel sleepy, so he went for his usual evening stroll around the garden before bedtime When he came back inside, he grabbed his cosy blanket and headed towards his basket His owner patted him on the head before he went to sleep – he was glad to be home