Week 3

Lesson 1

This week we are going to be looking at the best friends: ay, ee and igh

Vocabulary building

Let's look! You need to find as many words as you can for each of these "best friends". You must try and find 5 for each one. Use the table below:

| | | | | | | |
|-----|--------|--|--|--|--|--|
| ay | day | | | | | |
| ee | been | | | | | |
| igh | bright | | | | | |

Best friends

Complete the table below by finding the best friends and the number of sounds (graphemes) that each word has. Underline the best friends, then count the number of sounds in the word. The first one has been done for you

| | Best friends | Number of graphemes | | Best friends | Number of graphemes |
|-------|--------------|---------------------|-------|--------------|---------------------|
| play | ay | 3 | night | | |
| green | | | tray | | |
| spray | | | sleep | | |
| light | | | high | | |
| feel | | | way | | |

Rhyming words

Look at the words in the table and find words that rhyme. The words will have the same ending.

| | Rhyming words | ending |
|-------|---------------------|--------|
| not | got, plot, lot, not | ot |
| shift | | |
| twist | | |
| day | | |
| ball | | |
